1893.

—CONTAINING—

GENERAL INFORMATION OF THE CITIZENS, BUSINESS, STREETS,

AND THE CITY RECORD.

PUBLISHERS' CARD.

The publishers desire to express their thanks to the people of Rochester, for the courtesy and aid extended to them in their labor of canvassing for the Directory. And while efforts have been made to have the Directory correct, patrons will please bear in mind the difficulty of compiling an edition of so large a list of names without an occasional orthographical error; and we trust that all who give the work any attention will look for its merits rather than its defects.

THAT'S ALL.

I.

A little boy once had a dynamite bomb,
That's all, that's all;
Not a soul knew where he'd gotten it from,
That's all; that's all;
He played with it until he thought he must know
What was in it; said he, "Now I must go
Get a hammer;" he did, and he hit it one blow;
That's all; that's all.

II.

Now that ladies are donning the hoops,
That's all, that's all;
That crinoline bills will bust pocket books,
That's all, that's all;
Now there's the young wife who is out on the flirt,
For instead of three yards 'twill be nine for her skirt,
While her husband is wearing a short-waisted shirt,
That's all; that's all.

III.

For bargains in clothing go to Lothrops, Farnham & Co.,
That's all, that's all;
Their price for the best is exceedingly low,
That's all, that's all;
Everything there that gents wear will be,
Most wonderful bargains in clothing we see,
On Market street, Rochester, at number forty-three,
That's all; that's all.

FREE BAPTIST CHURCH, GONIC.

This is the oldest of the four Free Baptist churches in the city of Rochester. The society was organized March 19, 1825, at the house of Enoch Tibbetts, and a church was organized four years later, April 15, 1829, at the house of John York, by Rev. J. J. Wentworth, when seventeen persons received the hand of fellowship. The first clerk of the church was Jesse Meader, who afterwards became one of our most useful ministers. The first thirteen years the church was without a pastor, being supplied by itinerant ministers, among whom were Rev. J. J. Wentworth, Rev. Jesse Meader and Rev. Mr. Copp. During this time, ninety-six were received into the church. The meeting house was built and dedicated in 1840. Dec. 25, 1842, Rev. David Swett was chosen the first pastor of the church. The other pastors have been as follows: Revs. Aaron Ayers, Stephen Hutchinson, George M. Whitney, Tobiah Foss, J. R. Cook, W. T. Smith, George S. Hill, A. P. Tracy, A. L. Morey, W. W. Brown, W. S. Packard, L. Given, J. R. Franklin, and D. H. Adams, pastor since June 1, 1889. Rev. Ezekiel True supplied for six or eight months at the close of Mr. Wallace's pastorate of five months, which was the shortest pastorate, while the longest were by Abbott and Hill, four years each, and the present pastor. Only one of the seventeen pastors has died while in the service of the church, viz.: J. R. Cook, who had been pastor but one year. Rev. Harvey Brewer was ordained here May 12, 1859. The house of worship, erected in 1840, was repaired and refitted in 1857, extensively remodeled in 1872, and was refurnished and beautified in 1893.

THERE IS A REPORT

That we have the largest and best assorted stock in the city, and that our prices are the lowest. We are not going to deny this report, for it's true. We handle good goods, and our motto is: "Small profits and quick sales." A man who has "bitten off more than he can chew" is like a man who buys without first inspecting our prices—he wishes he hadn't.

It is always a pleasure to have you call and inspect our goods, inquiring prices and getting all the information possible, for we feel assured that it will result in making you permanent customers.

We give the same careful attention to small purchases that we do to our largest orders, feeling that even the smallest want is important and requires consideration at our hands.

When you want Clothing, Hats, or Furnishing Goods, don't forget us.
